

WARD 8 PARENT OPERATOR SELECTION TEAM

BACKGROUND

There is land that will be made available for a charter school to operate adjacent to the military base in Ward 8. This new school will serve military families, and families from the community. 50% of the seats will be reserved for military families and the others will be available for open enrollment through the lottery.

WHAT IS THE WARD 8 PARENT OPERATOR SELECTION TEAM (POST)

A panel of parents is being convened to make a recommendation for the school that will operate on this land. The panel will consist of 50% community representatives and 50% military families working collaboratively on the school selection process.

WARD 8 POST WILL:

- Create a Request for Proposal (RFP) for the school operator
- Create a rubric on which the RFP is evaluated
- Field proposals from potential school operators
- Evaluate proposals from potential school operators

HOW TO APPLY FOR THE WARD 8 POST?
